Dogs and Human Friends Protest Pooch Control Bill

King's Gay '90s Girl, this demure Shetland sheep dog, was one of six canines who came to the Council meeting in City Hall last night to protest the proposed new dog ordinance. Her mistress is Mrs. Edith King, 205 Ivy st.

As some 600 persons crowded the Council chambers and spilled out into the corridor, two dog-lovers appeared with signs to show Council how they feel. Left, Fat Kelley, 16, of 4126 Xavler st., who "likes dogs" but doesn't have one now. Right, is Joan Heim of 3525 Gates st., who owns a German schнауzer. He didn't come to the meeting. —STORY ON PAGE 5.
