JEWISH HOME FOR THE AGED of LOS ANGELES

Formerly HEBREW SHELTERING HOME FOR THE AGED
325-257 S. BOYLE AVE. • ANgeles 9140 • LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

Dear Friend:

In these serious times, in a world beset with dangers, the calls upon our generosity are many; but in the midst of it all, we can not, we must not forget the needs of our aged.

The old patriarchs and matriachs at this "Home" must be led.

Whatever other needs there may be we must still heed the Biblical injunction, "Honor thy father and thy mother" and there is no better way to honor our parents than by making a secure home, providing food and care for other fathers and mothers less fortunate than our own.

The old folks at this "Home" have lived worthy lives, but through misfortunes became penniless. It is our Duty to provide for them. This Home is the concrete evidence of our promise that they shall have security and food.

If you are not a member please join now. If you are a member see that your dues are paid, and if you can make further contribution please do so. It is surely needed. Please let us count you as one of our thoughtful helpers in this work.

Sincerely yours,

Samuel Tuck

President.

Do You Know . . .

The HOME is now in its 30th year . . .

170 aged indigent men and women are receiving complete care . . .

Strict orthodox Jewish customs are observed in every department, supervised by a representative of the Los Angeles Rabbinate . . .

There is a beautiful synagogue on the grounds, for daily worship . . .

A well-equipped hospital wing for the residents . . . Individual rooms—adding greatly to happiness and harmony of the residents . . .

Comfortable, cheerful dining room for residents . . .

Large auditorium, seating 300 guests. Concerts and entertainments are given here at frequent intervals for the pleasure of the residents . . .

Spacious and lovely grounds surround the Home . . .

The Home is always completely occupied, when a vacancy occurs, it is immediately filled from the long list of applicants who continually stand for admission.

Auxiliary organizations actively participating in the maintenance of the Home are:

The Senior Auxiliary

The Junior Auxiliary

Bay City Sisterhood

Assistance Circle

The Guardians (Men's Group)

NOTE

We are permitted by the Community Chest—and the Community Chest—only to receive a membership of $1.00 a year. This is to help make up the annual deficit. The more members the more dollars.

DO YOUR BIT
AND JOIN!

WE NEED YOUR MEMBERSHIP—

Give these worthy Men and Women another year of SECURITY . . .
another year of COMFORT . . . another year of HOPE.
