Jefferson Gaffery
American Ambassador
Cairo, Egypt

My dear Gaffery,

I have just read the highly fitting and well deserved congratulations the State Department sent you on this day.

I assure you, nothing could give your old friends more pleasure than to see the recognition of such able and unselfish duty to your country.

I sometimes see Mrs. Hamilton Lewis and she always gives me news of you.

Please remind me very kindly to Mrs. Gaffery and with warm regard and the compliments of the season, I am

Sincerely yours,
Mauricio Nabuco

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

Just a brief note to let you know how pleased and happy Kinetic and I were on seeing that your "superlative diplomatic skill over a long number of years" has received the recognition it so well deserves. Please accept our congratulations on receiving the Department's Distinguished Service Award.

Sincerely yours,

INTERNAL - OFFICIAL

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

I attended the Honor Awards ceremony yesterday and was very pleased to hear the very fine citation which Jack McFall read with respect to your being awarded the Distinguished Service Award. Secretary Acheson handed the award to Mr. Morrow, who will presumably be sending the award to you.

Both of us send congratulations and all best wishes to you and Mrs. Gaffery.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

I've just read about the ceremony in Cairo marking your twenty-fifth year as head of a diplomatic mission.

I send congratulations to you and to the State Department for having had the good judgment to keep you in important posts all these years.

Incidentally, it's been about seventeen years since we first met in Cuba.

Here's hoping you have a pleasant 1951 and that you continue to give our country your outstanding services for many years to come.

Sincerely
Chester

Dear Jefferson:

Just a line to say that I noted with much pleasure the story in the New York Times last Saturday, which told that on the following day you would be celebrating twenty-five years as Chief of Mission posts throughout the world, to a diplomat of our country.

This is indeed a long time to be in the diplomatic service, in such a high position, and you are to be congratulated - as is our country in having such a distinguished, devoted and successful public servant. You have always captured the respect and admiration of all with whom you have come in contact, and your achievements in the field of diplomacy and outstanding representation of the United States will go down in history.

I sincerely hope and trust, Jefferson that you and Mrs. Gaffery will continue to enjoy many, many years of good health and happiness.

Sincerely yours,

The Honorable Jefferson Gaffery,

The Honorable Dean Acheson
Secretary of State
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Secretary:

Press release No. 15, of January 5, 1951, has just come to my attention. It concerns the announcement that the Honorable Jefferson Gaffery will observe his 25th anniversary as Chief of Mission on January 7, 1951.

I regret deeply that we were not aware of this anniversary sooner. As you know, Mr. Gaffery is Louisiana's favorite "son" in the diplomatic corps and we are all very proud of him.

Please convey to him the best wishes of the FPA of Baton Rouge.

Cordially,

Ashton Green
