

UCLA ASIAN PACIFIC LAW STUDENTS ASSOCIATION PRESENTS...

THE LEGAL IMPLICATIONS OF

REDRESS & REPARATIONS

FEATURING: A PRESENTATION ON THE LANDMARK

UNITED STATES v. KOREMATSU CASE (1944)

by: Bruce Iwasaki
Professor of "Asian Americans & the Law" at UCLA

A focus on the constitutional court cases of the 1940s which challenged the legality of the wartime evacuation and incarceration of Japanese Americans.

"THE LOS ANGELES REDRESS HEARINGS"

Emotional and gripping highlights from the "Commission on Wartime Relocation & Internment of Civilians" public hearing held in Los Angeles; testimonies given by legal authorities and the victims of the camp experience.

AN OVERVIEW OF THE CURRENT MOVEMENT TO SEEK REDRESS/REPARATIONS FROM THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TUES., October 19th, 4:00 pm
Faculty Conference Room, Law Bldg.

REFRESHMENTS SERVED