

Final Scalar Project
FSCC 110

Author: _____

Grade: _____

Writing Content:	Proficient		Competent			Developing
	A	AB	B	BC	C	CD	D	F
Author clearly explains, introduces, and analyzes his/her problem
Author explains the significance (and relevance) of the identified problem to the university community
Author posits and discusses 3 plausible solutions including their pros and cons
Author argues that one of these solutions is more effective than the other
Author creates a clear narrative and connection between pages and ideas
Author alternates between general statements and examples (reasons and evidence)
Chapter contains and develops the three required sections: History of the Problem, Current State of the Problem, and Solutions (past, present, and future)
Design:
Total pages have at least 8 multimodal images (3 video and 5 still)
Annotates 4 multimodal images
Multimodal elements enhance the author's claim
Multimodal elements create unexpected and diverse ways of seeing your problem, its potential solutions, and possible causes
Textual citations are present and has an MLA Works Cited page
Includes 5 hyperlinks

Comments: