

Knowledge/Experience

What: A Science Roadmap for Food and Agriculture

Keywords: agricultural research, productivity, global food system, nutrition sustainability, bioeconomy, competitive agriculture, food map, climate change mitigation, food and climate change, energy security, functional foods

When/Where: 10/11/2010

Who: Association of Public and Land-grant Universities, 80 scientists involved in writing 7 white papers that relate to the grand challenges identified in the survey partners and advocates" of LGUs

Why: To highlight the challenges faced by the current food system and offers directions to pursue to develop solutions.

How: Vast number of scientists involved means peer review effective, more than 250 scientists in identifying the focus of the paper means that it is relevant subject material, 7 individual papers means that specific information can be identified without reading the whole report, form makes it very accessible, 7 grand challenges along with explanation and needs make key points salient

Type: