

HP FANGS

ILLUSTRATOR, DOODLER, ART TEACHER

"SMILE AND DESTROY ... white supremacy" (right image)

SMILE AND DESTROY
... white supremacy

HP Fangs is a well known illustrator and arts teacher based in Wilmington, NC. He is known for his signature big fangs incorporated in his cartoon-like drawings. During high school, he garnered big teeth and was known as the "teeth guy", giving him the spark to include his signature teeth into his art.

Inspired most by Hanna-Barbera cartoons, his art style features limited and bold lines with bright colors.

"Do the Right Thing inspired BLM manner (right image)

The banner was created by HP Fangs in the graphic style of the movie Do the Right Thing, a Spike Lee 1989 comedy drama about racial tensions set in Brooklyn. He asserts that BLM "is not a political thing, but a human thing". He was asked by Lighthouse Films Production to create a banner to display on their studio building in support for BLM and as a celebration for being black.

