

Jinny

I am water
An essential base of nature
Forever moving from to and fro
Constant flowing liquid crusader

I am this instant
Pleasure pours from every corner
Fill another glass for me,
Before I flow to another adorer

I am love
Constantly, consistently impassioned
But do not hold on for too long
One day I'll cool and dry, like lava touching ocean

I am beauty
Look at me! look at me!
Just begging for attention
But loveliness is fleeting soon too, it shall flee

I am natural
Nothing about me inhuman
To live is to want gratification
What satisfies changes with fire and wind
