

On Your Toes

Allowing yourself one minute for each query, test your general knowledge and mental alertness by supplying the correct answers to the following questions:

1. Maize is a term generally applied to what vegetable?
2. Which of these species of fish is the smallest when fully grown: a salmon or a smelt?
3. In order to measure distances with a pedometer, how must you travel?
4. What is the name of the popular Biblical character who was once sold into slavery by his brothers?
5. What is the name of the Biblical character who once caught 300 foxes, tied them tail to tail, in pairs, with firebrands attached, and set them loose in the wheat fields of his enemies?
6. A farmer would likely use a gelding for what purposes?
7. When it is noon Standard Time in Washington, D.C., what time is it in Hong Kong, China?
8. Jamaica is situated in what body of water?

(Answers on Page 2)