

SAPAC Workshop Evaluation
Women's Golf
[1990s]

Number of respondents: 13

1. How much did you learn from this training? (1=Nothing, 7=A lot).

Average: 4.231

2. How important do you think it is to have this kind of workshop? (1=Not important, 7=Extremely important).

Average: 5.154

Comments -- How much did you learn from this training?

--Everybody's knowledge on this is different so the provided info was relevant.

Personally, I did not really learn anything new.

Comments -- How important do you think it is to have this kind of workshop?

--This stuff happens on campus so it is important; but, everyone deals with this stuff differently . I felt you taught us a "uniform" approach or attitude toward such issues. I disagree with this approach. Everyone should stay sober and pray to God to bring them a nice man. Trust in God and He will bring you happiness! Don't party - stay home and lock yourself away and none of this will happen.

3. Video/Case Studies.

LIKES:

--Visualizes what can happen. Girls may want to go so far, but not all the way!
--It seemed to bring up issues and promote discussion.
--Brings things into perspective.
--Good because I could relate to the party.
--Video was realistic. Showed a potential situation.
--It raised a lot of different viewpoints. It shows it can happen to anyone. Makes you think.
--Realistic, interesting video.
--It showed how the guy and the girl view things differently.
--Very accurate portrayal. Sends a message.
--Good length. Able to maintain attention while still being fully informed. Provided good examples of right and wrong things to do.
--Video was realistic (this happens in college frequently). Victim's friends (one stood up for her, the other stood up for her ex-boyfriend).
--Realistic videos help. We could relate to the situations.

DISLIKES:

--Where do you draw the line in an assault case? I left feeling this question was very unanswered.
--A little unbelievable in the ending. I don't know (in the interest of time) whether it's necessary.
--The video was good but maybe a little outdated.
--The video should be more recent.
--Didn't like the second girl arguing with the hurt girl.
--Friend wanted to know all the details. End unrealistic.
--It didn't have an ending really. Kind of fake acting.

--The cop showing up at the end was a bit unrealistic.
--Old style (1980's).
--Probably needs to be updated.
--Friend shouldn't have asked for details. Police will not show up at the door that quickly.

4. Discussion.

LIKES:

--Everyone is responsible for their actions! Support is key!
--Interesting. Makes me think about my personal relationships.
--It was informative. Related to real life experiences.
--The open forum atmosphere.
--Good to talk, but need more ideas from people (examples).
--Brought up important points. Explained well.
--Very informative and interesting. She is very easy to talk to and I feel more comfortable if I have to help a friend.
--Everyone could talk.
--Informative, found out some new information.
--Good questions. Information was necessary and needed to be heard.
--The information provided was good. Greg and Sarah were supportive with our comments.
--Made me more aware of places where I can get help. We interacted well.
--Explanations were very thorough. Easy to talk with Greg and Sarah.

DISLIKES:

--A little long. (3)
--People aren't open to discussion.
--Hard to get going on each topic. Made me feel uncomfortable and sad because it made me focus on an incident that recently happened to me.
--Too long. Over and over on the same point.
--Might be good to have gender discussions between males and females.
--This was a little long. I lost interest after about 45 minutes. The discussion about marriage was difficult to relate to.
--Sort of repetitive. Same point over and over but it is important to hear.