ABOUT THE ARCHIVES BAZAAR

For more than 20 years, the L.A. as Subject consortium has brought to life the diverse, often hidden stories that make Southern California such a fascinating place of discovery. In 2005, we inaugurated the Los Angeles Archives Bazaar to give anyone with an interest in the region's history a one-stop opportunity to interact with dozens of archives, from large institutions to private collectors. In all, more than 70 archives are represented at this event, which is free and open to the public.

In addition to the wealth of information on display from exhibitors, the bazaar will feature workshops and demonstrations on the archiving and preservation of scrapbooks; a program on how to research historical information about Los Angeles; workshops on National History Day and Home Movie Day; and a screening of the documentary East LA Interchange, which traces the history of Boyle Heights and its diverse and rapidly changing populations—followed by Q & A with director Betsy Kalin.
