

1457

YORUBA MUSIC

(AFRICAN)

FUSION OF SPEECH AND MUSIC

by

EKUNDAYO PHILLIPS

AFRICAN MUSIC SOCIETY

JOHANNESBURG

1953-

First Edition 1952

Copyright Reserved

♠

MORIJA PRINTING WORKS

MORIJA, BASUTOLAND

CONTENTS

Foreword

Preface

Chapter		Page
1.	Rhythm and Tones in Yoruba Speech	1
2.	From Speech Tones to Music - The Missing Link	4
3.	The Pentatonic Scale as the Common Basis of Yoruba Music and European Mediaeval Music	8
4.	Similarity between European Mediaeval Music and Yoruba Music of to-day	12
5.	Development of Yoruba Music - The Guiding Principles	16
6.	Development of Yoruba Music - Melody	18
7.	Development of Yoruba Music - Rhythm	21
8.	Development of Yoruba Music - Part Singing and Accompaniment	26
9.	Development of Yoruba Music - Form	29
10.	Development of Yoruba Music - Expression	32
11.	Conclusion	34

MUSICAL ILLUSTRATIONS

APPENDICES

	Page
1. Speech Tones	36
2. Speech Tones and their Rhythms	37
3. Musical Tunes of Appendix 2	38
4. Music Making in Hawking	39
5. Modulation in Developed Melodies	41
6. Modal Tunes	43
7. The Development and History of a Folk Song	47
8. Part Singing	48
9. Developed Form of the Song "A Nwa, Awa o Ri"	50
10. Variations on Song—Ohun a f'owo se	51
11. Chorus of a Song with Percussion Accompaniment	53
12. Similarity between Developed Yoruba Music, and European 16th Century and Traditional Music	54
13. Varied Tunes to the same Words	56
14. List of Recorded Yoruba Compositions and Arrangements	58